

THE TRUSTEES

Vicky Joseph

Vicky is Guy's mother and the chair of trustees. She spent most of her working life in the not-for-profit sector, managing the Movement for Reform Judaism's social action programme and a number of other projects including a refugee-befriending project. Vicky has a BA in Social Sciences.

Tony Joseph

Tony is Guy's father and treasurer of Guy's Trust. He is a retired businessman with many years of experience in retail and distribution.

Lauren Joseph

Lauren is Guy's sister and is a physiotherapist working in amputee rehabilitation. As well as a BSc in physiotherapy, she has a BA in social psychology. Lauren has spent a large amount of time travelling and volunteering in the developing world.

Alex Joseph

Alex is Guy's sister and works for Channel 4 as a big data strategist. She has previously worked as assistant producer for a major TV company and spent several years as a management consultant with Ernst and Young and with PwC in London and New York. Alex has an MSc in psychology.

Hannah Weisfeld is the founder and director of Yachad, an organisation dedicated to working for a two-state solution to the Israel-Palestine conflict. She is also trustee of Masambiro, an educational project in Malawi and has lived and worked in Malawi and Israel. Hannah has a BA in English Literature and an MSc in Global Politics.

Katie Armstrong has worked in corporate responsibility in London and New York and currently works for Deloitte Global, managing the company's pro-bono initiatives with the humanitarian and education sectors. Katie has a BA in Anthropology and an MSc in International Development.

Joely Brammer was a very close friend of Guy's and runs her own creative manufacturing and design business, Good Empire. She has a BA in Illustration and Animation and has developed and now manages art studios in South London.
